ABOUT ME

I'm an experienced seasoned software engineer with 5 years of hands-on experience. Specializing in technologies like .Net 6, ASP.NET Core, React, and MongoDB, I've been involved in impactful projects such as Predatar and Indici Health Care. My expertise extends to backend frameworks like ASP.NET MVC 5 and ASP.NET CORE, contributing to the development of platforms like LancerHop, discussion forums, OLX replicas, and online shopping websites. Proficient in C#, JavaScript, and TypeScript, I bring a wealth of knowledge to any software development team, and I'm eager to contribute to innovative projects.
